THERE'S A PLEASING SYMMETRY TO THE LAYOUT OF THIS SUBSTANTIAL PROPERTY IN ST JOHN'S WOOD AND A CALM ATMOSPHERE THROUGHOUT, AS WELL AS SOME KEY TANGIBLE FEATURES. BY CATHERINE GOLDING

FORMER-HOLLYOAKS

actress Davinia Taylor is selling her St John's Wood property, a stucco Gothic house on the junction of Clifton Hill and Greville Road.

The detached home was refurbished several years ago and it has a classic, clean feel to it with simple lines and an understated décor providing a calm atmosphere. With most of the principal reception rooms on one level it's a lovely layout for entertaining.

Underlining its credentials as a family home, there are seven bedrooms and several additional features that make it a 'standout' property, including a wine cellar and a utility area plus a room which could either serve as a study or a play space.

The kitchen/breakfast room looks out over the garden through large, full-length doors and a mirrored wall maximises available light by reflecting it back into the eating area.

This shows that a traditionally-designed house doesn't have to be dull.

📍 IDEAL FOR ENTERTAINING

The property has a beautiful entrance hall that draws visitors through to the key reception rooms. The central staircase sweeps up to the first floor where, in addition to the extensive master bedroom suite there are six further bedrooms and three bathrooms. There is also a study/playroom, utility room, WC, dining room, kitchen/breakfast room, wine cellar, garden, integral garage and an off-street parking area.
