

MOVING ON - A GALLERY OF RECENTLY SOLD AND LET PROPERTIES

This was a very impressive four storey Victorian Villa located in Thurlow Road, which is a quiet, highly sought-after Hampstead Village location. Retaining many original features, the family accommodation of 4,696 sq ft had some wonderful entertaining space and comprised a drawing room, dining room, family room, library, conservatory and bar, six bedrooms, two bathrooms and a utility room. It had a stunning, large and private walled garden, which was south facing, plus a double garage and gated parking for four/six cars. There was easy access to the many local schools and Hampstead Heath, plus the shops and transport facilities of the Village. All-in-all this was a wonderful property.

Asking Price £7,000,000

Sold by Goldschmidt & Howland, Hampstead 020 7435 4404

This unique home in Alma Square, St John's Wood, was developed to an exceptional standard and incorporated excellent family accommodation with style and taste. It was a beautiful period house arranged over four floors directly backing on to some wonderful south facing communal gardens. The property, which had been completely renovated six years ago, offered spacious reception rooms and bedroom accommodation. It boasted off-street parking for two cars, a fantastic kitchen/breakfast room, a double reception room, dining area, TV area, two guest WCs, master bedroom with en-suite shower room, four further bedrooms, two further bathrooms, utility area and a patio garden.

Asking Price £3,650,000

Sold by Ian Green Residential 020 7586 1000

A wonderful five bedroom, semi-detached Victorian house, which was set back from the road behind a deep garden and provided off-street parking for two/three cars. A charming home, it comprised 3,532 sq ft arranged over four floors and retained a wealth of internal and external period features. It boasted four to five reception rooms, a bespoke handmade kitchen/breakfast room and a garden extending to more than 130' with a large summer house and peaceful 'secret wild garden'. This fine property was immaculately presented and was positioned within one of 'The Villages' premier roads - Prince Arthur Road - within a few paces of Hampstead High Street.

Asking Price OIEO £4,950,000

Sold by Marcus Parfitt 020 7431 0000

This was an immaculate four-storey, white-stucco house, which overlooked the Regent's Canal in Blomfield Road, arguably Little Venice's most sought-after road. The house had been refurbished to an extremely-high decorative standard throughout. There was a stunning master bedroom suite occupying the entire first floor, as well as a reception room and an impressive dining room on the ground floor. A wonderful kitchen, utility room, further bedroom and a gym featured on the lower-ground floor and there were three further bedrooms on the top floor. A landscaped 66ft walled rear garden, the location of the house and the views of the canal were all welcome finishing touches.

Asking Price £6,000,000

Sold by Arlington Residential 020 7722 3322