

This stylish and architect-designed first floor one/two bedroom apartment in Englands Lane, NW3, boasted an impressive 36' reception space with high ceilings and wooden floors. A particular feature of this contemporary apartment was the flexible accommodation and a completely movable wall, which helped to create even greater reception space or a perfectly separated second bedroom/office.

Other features included a trendy master bedroom suite with open-plan bathroom, separate wetroom and an unofficial roof terrace. It was ideally located above commercial premises along this fashionable road and within easy walking distance of Primrose Hill Park, Belsize Park underground station and the various local shops, cafes and restaurants.
